

Apoorva Srivastava
Conseiller (Presse, Information & Culture)

Ambassade de l'Inde
Presse, Information & Culture
Paris

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

The Embassy had the pleasure to welcome Padmaja Srivastava who promotes tribal art on the occasion of an evening organized on April 10th, 2014 at the Embassy around the exhibition "Vernacular India 2014. When the elephant lost its wings..." in presence of Anne Chevalier and Anders Laustsen of the gallery Anders hus, Christian Journet (President of the association Duppata) and Barbara Pillot.

Padmaja Srivastava introduced four women artists through their paintings on that occasion as well as her first book "The flying elephant", illustrated by Rajendra Shyam, a Gond artist and translated by Barbara Pillot. Her talk was very informative and interesting. It was well received by the French public.

Paris, 23rd June 2015